Phil Hollingsworth Board Treasure

Phil Hollingsworth, Owner, Writer, and Musician.

Hollingsworth is the owner of Hollingsworth Business and Accounting Services, and is a member of the National Association of Enrolled Agents. He has been in the tax preparation business for 28 years. He is an expert at non-profit accounting tax laws.

Phil is not new to the world of sports. In 1984, he administered the finances and record keeping for the Los Angeles International Marathon that hosted the Olympic trials for Kenya, Mexico, England, Netherlands and Japan.

Phil has always had a passion to serve his community. While serving in different capacities, one of his noted accomplishments was that of becoming president of the Palisades Rotary Club. The Palisades distinguished itself by having Ronald Regan as a member.

His interest also lies in education. Hollingsworth has written and published independent study math and algebra courses. He is currently writing a similar course for Geometry. His passion is to help high school youth pass the California HS Exit Exam.

Hollingsworth was a member of the rock band Canterbury Fair in the late 60's. The band is known for recording many CD's. His band developed a sound combining the fashionable ominous heavy rock of the late 60's psychedelic with Baroque classical touches.

Phil is married and has four children. He enjoys English riding and he is currently organizing a 40-year reunion concert for the rock band he played with in the late 60's- Canterbury Fair for the summer of 2010.
