Charlie Wade Coach/Site Director

Charlie Wade (University of Hawaii Head Men's Volleyball Coach)

Charlie was the former University of Hawaii Women's Volleyball Assistant from 1995-2005, and is currently the Head Women's Volleyball Coach at the University of the Pacific. He compiled a 38-46 record in three seasons. His teams improved 10 wins from his inaugural season to finish with an 18-9 record in 2007. That same year, his squad won three tournament titles and defeated 20th ranked Cal Poly.

Wade was also the founder of the Magnum Volleyball Club and the Southern California Volleyball Institute, which was regarded by many collegiate coaches as one of the top junior programs in the country.

Charlie served as head coach of the Anaheim, California club and coached eventual Rainbow Wahine standouts Kristal Altwood, Kee Williams, Sarah Chase, Heather Bown and Jessica Sudduth and former UOP standout Tracy Chambers.

During his time as assistant coach for the University of Hawaii Women's Volleyball teammate, the Rainbow Wahine won 11 conference titles, advanced to the NCAA Regional 10 times, and made four NCAA Championship appearances. UH posted a remarkable 160-1-conference mark and an overall record of 310-39 for an 89 percent winning percentage. In post season competition, Wade helped guide the Rainbow Wahine to 11 consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances, six Regional finals 1995, 1996, 1998, 2000, 2002, and 2003.

Charlie is married to former University of Washington player Tani Martin. The couple has two children, Makana and Kainoa.

Charlie is one of our nation's premier coaches. The Youth National Volleyball Association is proud to have him as their Coach/Site Director for the Honolulu YNVA site.
